EGG HUNT

WIN $10,000

Is the event free?

Yes, this event is free and the start is at the top of Kosciuszko Express chairlift

Do I need a ticket to go up the Kosciuszko Express chair?

Yes, you require a valid lift ticket to go up the Kosciuszko Express Chairlift (charges will apply for the chairlift)

Can I walk to the event..?

Yes

Where is the start?

The first clue states that people should meet at the top of the Kosciuszko Express Chairlift at midday on Easter Sunday, 17th April. You need to head to the Thredbo socials for more clues.

Is it suitable for children?

The terrain is variable so it is recommended children have adult supervision.
You must be over the age of 18 to claim the prize.

How many easter eggs will be hidden..?

Over 500 Lindt Easter Eggs will be hidden in Thredbo for you to find.

Where is the egg hidden?

The Golden Egg will be hidden somewhere within Thredbo

Do I have to register to find the egg?

There is no pre-registration. You will collect your entry wrist band from the top of the Kosciuszko Express before 12noon, Easter Sunday. Without this wristband, you will not be able to claim your prize. This ensures everyone has a fair advantage and has been briefed on safety.

Can I find the egg if I am staff?

All staff members (or immediate family of such employees) of Event Hospitality & Entertainment are not permitted to find the egg.

What should I wear?

It is recommended that participants wear good hiking/mountain shoes and long pants/long sleeves.

What is the terrain like?

The terrain is a mixture of scrub, rocks, bush, wombat holes, and swampy areas; so you need to have the suitable shoes and clothing. There will be first aid available, but it is recommended that participants are fit and healthy.
