HIKES AROUND THREDBO

These walks start from Valley Terminal at the base of the Kosciuszko Express Chairlift and are relatively easy, allowing you to explore Thredbo's backyard.

C Riverside Walk/Golf Course Hike

A relaxed walk along the Thredbo River with its calming flow and clear water, then around Australia's highest golf course. From Valley Terminal cross the vehicle bridge, turn right and walk across the Village Green to cross Friday Drive and head towards the golf course.

The Riverside Walk starts on your left after you cross the bridge next to the Chapel and follows the river to the far end of the golf course for approximately 1.5kms, where you will come to a fork in the track. The right hand fork in the track will lead you up and around the golf course passing through Crackenback Ridge and back to the village. The left hand fork will take you along the Thredbo River to Dead Horse Gap.

I Meadows Nature Track

From Valley Terminal head along the path past the Alpine Bobsled and to the start of the Merritts Nature Track. You will then cross Merritts Creek, go past Birralelee Camp on the left and cross the Sundowner ski run with the water tanks on the right.

The track heads into the Alpine Ash forest climbing steadily until you reach an intersection where the Merritts Nature Track continues sharply to the right with the Meadows Track going straight ahead. After leaving the forest, the track heads up the ski run crossing under the Snowgums Chairlift just above Lovers Leap Station. Traversing the middle slopes you pass under the Kosciuszko Express Chairlift before heading into the trees. When you pop out of the forest you are on the lower Funnel Web run, follow this for your return to the village.

A Pipeline Path

Starting at Valley Terminal go past the Alpine Bobsled. As you approach the Woodridge residential area take the right hand turn down the stairs to Friday Drive. Turn right and cross the bridge, then on the far side of the bridge, cross the road. Between the bridge and the embankment you will see the Pipeline Path leading off. Take that path all the way to the end, where you will meet Friday Drive, which will take you back to the village. Please be aware of vehicles.

B Thredbo Valley Track

This is a great lower elevation walk with a nice mix of highlights and gradients. The shared use trail takes hikers through the picturesque Thredbo Valley across impressive suspension bridges to the old Rangers Station. It meanders along the banks of the famous Thredbo River, undulating through eucalypts and grasslands. You can either return to Thredbo along the same track or just before the Rangers Station, cross to the other side of the river. From here you will find more rolling downhill with uphill sections through forests and open woodlands. This takes you to Ngarigo camping ground, continue further along to the beautiful riverside location of Thredbo Diggings. This is a great spot for a picnic and dip in the crisp waters of the Thredbo River. For an intense longer hike the trail continues along to the shores of Lake Jindabyne. Please note this trail is also shared by mountain bikers.

HIKES ABOVE THREDBO

These hikes begin at the top of the Kosciuszko Express Chairlift (1930m altitude). Some of the hikes are longer and above the tree line. Warm windproof clothing suitable for changeable alpine conditions should be carried.

E Mt Kosciuszko Summit & Mt Kosciuszko Lookout

Stand on top of Australia at 2228m and enjoy a full panoramic 360 degree view across the stunning Australian landscape. Take the chairlift to the top and head out along the paved pathway to the first footbridge that crosses Merritts Creek, this is where you start on the metal grate walkway. Follow the walkway to the Mt. Kosciuszko Lookout (altitude 2000m) for views of Australia's highest peaks and alpine vistas.

Continue on towards the summit, the track is now downhill over the headwaters of the Snowy River. Continue up a rise to the halfway rocks in the saddle. Looking out to your right past the rocks you can see the Snowy River's tributaries all join and flow under the bridge on the Summit track, this road leads to Charlotte Pass. Follow the walking track to Rawson Pass (altitude 2110m) where the metal grate path ends as it meets the Summit Track, bathrooms are available at Rawsons Pass. From Rawson Pass the summit is only 1.7kms away. The path becomes a little steeper and circles the summit passing through granite boulder fields. Return to Thredbo following the same track.

D Merritts Nature Track

This is a stunning, interesting and varied hike that begins at 1930m and descends 560 vertical meters to the village at 1370m. The hike is strenuous and steep with many stairs, some deep, and it is not recommended for small children or people with knee problems. When you get off the Kosciuszko Express Chairlift, turn left down the paved walk way for 20 metres and follow the trail to the right down to the top of Snowgums Chairlift.

The track enters the trees and winds past Merritts Falls and down beside Merritts Creek, crossing the mountain access road twice (picnic table below second crossing) before heading along the Bunny Walk ski run. When you come out into the open near Snowgums Chairlift, turn left, and continue down with the track running beside the mountain bike track. The walk returns to the snow gum forest and crosses the mountain access road. Walkers will then descend through a towering Alpine Ash forest, emerging to follow Merritts Creek and passing Birralelee Camp. Cross Merritts Creek via the road/footbridge, continue past the Alpine Bobsled and down to the paved path where a right turn will take you back to Valley Terminal.

G Merritts Traverse

From the top of the Kosciuszko Express Chairlift follow the Merritts Nature Track. Where the walk crosses the Village Trail, turn left and follow the road across Merritts Creek and the base of Sponars and Antons T-bars. From the base of Antons T-bar walk up to the top station of the Gunbarrel Express Chairlift. Continue walking along this access track until you reach the Cruiser area. Walk down the grassy slopes and follow the road through the different vegetation zones. Once you reach the valley floor turn left onto the access road, this will lead you to Friday Flat and you can walk along the footpath back to the village.

F Main Range Hike

Follow the Mt Kosciuszko Summit hike directions, then walk from Mt Kosciuszko Summit towards Rawson Pass. The Main Range Hike veers to the left from just below the summit of Mt Kosciuszko. It traverses along the top of the range via Mueller's Pass, Northcote Pass, Carruthers Peak, past the glacial lakes of Lake Albina and Club Lake and then down past Blue Lake to cross the Snowy River before the climb becomes steep to Charlotte Pass. From Charlotte Pass the return route follows the Summit Track to Seamans Hut and then returns to Rawson Pass. At Rawson Pass turn left and follow the metal grate track back to Thredbo.

PLEASE NOTE: This is an all-day hike with strenuous uphill sections.

J Dead Horse Gap/Thredbo River Track

This is one of the best walks in the area. It's mostly downhill with extensive views and varying types of vegetation. From the top of the Kosciuszko Express Chairlift, follow the paved Mt Kosciuszko Summit track for approx 400 metres to the point where a sign on the left indicates the start of the Dead Horse Gap Hike.

Follow the track as it traverses the Ramshead Range. The track rises and in the distant skyline you will see a pole, this is the track's highest point (2019m) – it's all downhill now. Keep on the track to the tree line, it will enter the trees and follow the ridge down to Dead Horse Gap where it joins the Thredbo River Track that takes you back to Thredbo Village. The Thredbo River Track starts on the grassy flat beside the Thredbo River. It is an easy walk along this track to the Thredbo Golf Course then on to the village. There are no toilets along this track once you have left the Kosciuszko Express top station.

PLEASE NOTE: there are sections of this hike that can be challenging for small children or people with knee problems.
